ORDER

KATHERINE POLK FAILLA, District Judge:

The Court has received and reviewed the letter from Donato Caruso, Esq., dated September 17, 2014, as well as its attachments, a letter to the undersigned and a letter to United States District Judge Esther Salas of the District of New Jersey, both dated September 15, 2014. (Dkt. #96). In consideration of these letters, and after consultation with Judge Salas, it is hereby ORDERED:

- This case is referred for mediation to the Court-annexed Mediation Program.
- All parties to the cases that are enumerated in the September 15, 2014 letter to the undersigned (Dkt. #96 at 2), in addition to any proposed interveners to any of those cases (collectively, the “Parties”), shall participate in the mediation.
- The Parties shall contact the designated mediator within four days of the date of this Order, and shall coordinate with the mediator to set up an initial mediation conference that is within 20 days of the date of this Order.

- The designated mediator for this mediation is: Daniel F. Kolb, Esq., of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, 450 Lexington Avenue, New York, NY 10017, (212) 450-4394, daniel.kolb@davispolk.com.
- All deadlines, conferences, and litigation activities in the above-captioned case are hereby STAYED pending the termination of mediation; the Parties shall be responsible for seeking stays in other affected matters.
- The Parties have until December 31, 2014, to resolve this case by the mediation process established by this Order; on January 1, 2015, the stay will be lifted and shortly thereafter the Court will enter a scheduling order re-instituting deadlines.
- The parties are hereby notified that Local Rule 83.9 shall govern the mediation and are directed to participate in the mediation in good faith.

SO ORDERED.
